Candidates are advised to plan for a minimum of 2¼ hours on site. Registration takes about 10-15 minutes and candidates have two hours to complete the assessment. Exams require a score of 70% to pass.
Castle
Castle develops high-stakes examinations and practice tests in fields ranging from engineering to medical technology to physical fitness tests for the certification or licensure of professionals. Castle candidates schedule their exams through the Castle Worldwide webpage. More information can be obtained at www.castleworldwide.com.

Certiport
Certiport offers certification programs and exams to students and professionals. Fees Very based on Exam Package ~ Purchase exam vouchers through Certiport’s website. See IC3 and Quickbooks below.

College Level Examination Program (CLEP)
CLEP offers thirty-three different exams in five subject areas. The tests are recognized by the American Council on Education (ACE). Candidates are advised to plan for a minimum of two hours on site (2½ hours for the College Composition exam). Registration takes about 10–15 minutes and exams last approximately ninety minutes (120 minutes for the College Composition exam). Most exams require a score of 50 to pass. A specific list of ACE recommended exam scores can be accessed at http://clep.collegeboard.org/develop/ace-credit. CLEP exams cost $110.00 ($25.00 administration fee and $85.00 exam fee) and are offered daily Monday-Friday. Individuals should purchase a CLEP exam admission ticket from http://clep.collegeboard.org/register/exam and visit www.athens.edu/testing to schedule an appointment.

College of Education Orientation
The University Testing Center offers College of Education make-up sessions two days per month. Candidates should plan to spend 6 hours onsite and bring a laptop and headphones to their session. Individuals should check the University Testing Center webpage link or call the University Testing Center to confirm session dates. It is the responsibility of the candidate to coordinate with their advisor to communicate session completion.

Comira Testing
Comira is a full service testing company for licensure, certification, assessment and educational testing programs. Comira exams are offered daily Monday-Friday. Comira candidates schedule their exams through the Comira webpage. More information can be obtained at http://candidate.comiratesting.com/comira/.

DANTES Subject Standardized Test (DSST)
The DSST program offers thirty-eight different college level examinations. The exams are recognized by the American Council on Education (ACE). Candidates are advised to plan for a minimum of 2½ hours on site. Registration takes about 10-15 minutes and most exams last approximately 2 hours. A specific list of ACE recommended exam scores can be accessed at http://getcollegecredit.com/institutions and then click on the ACE Credit Recommendation link on the right. DSST exams cost $110.00 ($25.00 administration fee and $85.00 exam fee) and are offered daily Monday-Friday. Individuals visit www.athens.edu/testing to schedule an appointment.
Graduate Record Examination (GRE)

The GRE is a graduate-level admissions test. The GRE features a verbal reasoning section, a quantitative reasoning section, and an analytical writing section. Candidates are advised to plan for 4½ hours on site. Registration and check-out take about 15 minutes each and the exam is 4 hours long. GRE exams are offered during the GRE selected testing dates – usually once per quarter. Candidates schedule and pay for their exams through the GRE website: http://www.ets.org/gre/.

Internet and Computing Core Certification (IC3)

The Internet and Computing Core Certification (IC3) exam is available through the University Testing Center. Candidates are advised to plan for 1.5 hours on site.

Miller Analogies Test (MAT)

The MAT is a mental ability test that is required for many graduate programs. Candidates are advised to plan for a minimum of 1¼ hours on site. Registration takes about 10-15 minutes and the exam lasts approximately 60 minutes. Required scores for graduate school admittance vary according to program requirements. Candidates are encouraged to contact their home university for specific score requirement information. MAT exams cost $70.00 and are offered daily Monday-Friday. Individuals visit www.athens.edu/testing to schedule an appointment.

National Center for Competency Testing (NCCT)

The National Center for Competency Testing (NCCT) is an independent credentialing organization that has tested healthcare professionals and instructors throughout the United States since 1989. NCCT provides multiple qualifying paths for certification in medical fields. NCCT exams are offered one day per month. Candidates schedule their exams at www.ncctinc.com.

PAN – Performance Assessment Network

PAN offers over 500 talent assessments and measurement solutions for industries. PAN exams are offered daily Monday-Friday. Not all PAN exams are available all the time – PAN determines the exam windows. Candidates or their employers schedule the exams directly through PAN at www.psionline.com. Exam lengths vary. PAN encourages all candidates to arrive 30 minutes prior to their appointment time.

Pearson VUE

PRAXIS

The Praxis Series® tests are taken by individuals entering the teaching profession as part of the certification process required by many states and professional licensing organizations. PRAXIS exams are offered daily Monday-Friday during the scheduled testing windows that are determined by PRAXIS and continuous exams are offered on Friday mornings. Candidates schedule and pay for their exams through the PRAXIS website: https://www.ets.org/praxis. Exam lengths vary but PRAXIS encourages all candidates to arrive 30 minutes prior to their appointment time.

Proctored Exams

Athens State University will proctor exams for other universities and colleges upon request. Candidates must contact the University Testing Center Coordinator to schedule an appointment. It is the responsibility of the candidate to coordinate with their home university about the specific requirements for each exam proctored. Registration takes about 10-15 minutes and exam lengths vary. Individuals visit www.athens.edu/testing to schedule an appointment.

Prov

Prov develops and administers online and paper/pencil examinations. Alabama exam options include but are not limited to: Alabama Auctioneer, Alabama Electrical, Alabama HACR, and Alabama Home Builders. Prov exams are offered daily Monday-Friday. Prov exams vary in length and allowed materials are determined by Prov. Candidates schedule the exams directly through Prov. Prov encourages all candidates to arrive 30 minutes prior to their appointment time.

Intuit Quickbooks Certified User (QBCU) Exam

The Intuit Quickbooks Certified User Exam is available to candidates that wish to become certified on this software package. Candidates are advised to plan for 1.5 hours on site.
Quiet Please!
The Office of Testing Services wants to provide you with a quiet and undisturbed environment. Please take special care as you arrive and leave to maintain that quiet atmosphere, both inside and immediately outside of the testing areas. Thank You!

Valid government-issued photo I.D. is required for ALL testing.
The primary form of identification must be a current government-issued photo ID card with the cardholder’s printed name and signature. (Example: Current Driver’s License)

Appointment Guidelines
Candidates should schedule appointments through our online appointment portal. Candidates will select their exam, appointment date and time, and then complete their exam administration fee payment. Candidates should arrive 15 minutes prior to their scheduled testing appointment to complete the check-in process.

Late Guidelines
Being late is defined as arriving 15 minutes after the appointment time. If a candidate calls in before their scheduled time indicating that they will be late by not more than 15 minutes their appointment will be moved to the next available slot in the same day (if there is an opening). Otherwise the candidate will need to reschedule.

A candidate arriving 15 minutes or more after the scheduled appointment will need to reschedule their appointment and is considered a No Show.

No Show/Cancellation Guidelines
Candidates who wish to cancel a scheduled assessment may do so but forfeit any previously paid testing fees. Candidates who do not arrive for a scheduled assessment will be considered a “No Show” and will forfeit all previously paid testing fees.

Testing Fee Refund Policy
Testing Fees are non-refundable. Candidates can reschedule an assessment*. Candidates that are considered a “No Show” will not qualify to have their testing fee transferred to a new appointment and will forfeit all previously paid testing fees.

Inclement Weather Guidelines
In the event of inclement weather the University Testing Center will be closed when Athens State University is closed. Please refer to local news media outlets or the University’s webpage for weather related delays and closings. When the University re-opens, all candidates should contact the Testing Center to reschedule affected appointments.
