- Do you know when a decision will be made?
COVER LETTER CHECKLIST

Five Second Review: Give it the once-over; is your cover letter:

- Free of typos and spelling errors?
- Proofread by someone for grammatical and punctuation errors?
- Typed in the same font and on same color paper as your resume?
- Organized and prioritized?
- Full of action verbs describing experience, skills, and knowledge?
- Specifically addressing the person in charge of hiring for the job, using a colon or comma after the person’s name?
- Signed personally by you in blue or black ink?

Fifteen Minute Review: After further reflection, does your cover letter:

- State specifically the job title for which you are applying?
- State specifically how you found out about the job posting?
- Specifically address qualifications listed in the job announcement or list any qualifications you have if this is a letter of inquiry?
- Emphasize internships, relevant job experience, relevant coursework, or professional society activities?
- Show your enthusiasm in wanting the position for which you are applying?
- Stay away from statements such as “I feel”, “I think”, and “I believe”?
- Describe your personal attributes that would relate to company culture or how you would fit in the organization?
- Address any names of people who referred you?
- Have the appropriate number of paragraphs (3-5)?
- State interest in scheduling an interview with a company representative?
- Provide your contact information, i.e., phone and email?
- Thank the employer for his/her time and consideration.
