Withdrawal from Courses

I. Policy Statement and Purpose

In accordance with Athens State University’s educational mission, this policy establishes the standards for official withdrawal from courses at Athens State University. These standards are based on comparable practices at other institutions of higher education and also recognize the unique status of the University as an upper-division institution.

II. Prior to Course Withdrawal

Special regulations pertain to students receiving veteran’s benefits or financial aid: those individuals must confer with the Director of Veterans Affairs or the Director of Student Financial Aid prior to initiating a withdrawal action.

All students are strongly encouraged to contact their academic advisor before withdrawing from any courses. Withdrawal from a course may affect progress through the curriculum and impact program completion.

III. Withdrawal from a Course

Any student may officially withdraw from an individual course before the date of the first day of final exams as published in the academic schedule for the semester or term of enrollment.

Any student who officially withdraws from a course after the late registration/change of schedule period but before the first day of final exams will be assigned a grade of “W” for the course and the grade will be entered on the Athens State transcript. However, no permanent notation is made for courses “dropped” during the late registration/change of schedule period. A “W” grade will not be assigned after the withdrawal deadline.

Absence from a course does not constitute an official withdrawal. Any student enrolled in a course that stops attending and does not officially withdraw will receive a grade of “F”. Under no circumstances will a grade of “W” be changed to a grade, or a final grade be changed to a “W.”

All students must process official withdrawals using the procedure established by the Office of Admissions and published on the University website. Failure to do so may result in a failing grade for a course.
