Section 2

All General Body meetings shall be open to all students of Athens State University.

Section 3

Special meetings may be called by the SGA President, Director of Campus and Community Engagement, or at the request of one-half of the officers.

Section 4

A quorum shall consist of two-thirds of the voting members of the Student Government Association that are in attendance of a General Body Meeting.

Section 5

Robert’s Rules of Order (revised), shall be the parliamentary authority for all matters of procedure not specifically covered by the constitution.

Section 6

SGA Officers will be allowed no more than four unexcused absences from the Student Government Association meetings. After four unexcused absences have occurred, the officer will lose voting privileges for the remaining semester. For an SGA E-board member, more than 4 absences can also be grounds for dismissal.

ARTICLE X. Removal or Vacancies of Officers

Section 1

The President shall be succeeded by the Vice President. The Vice President shall be succeeded by the Secretary and then the Mascot. All other vacancies shall be filled by an election of the voting members of the Student Government Association or by appointment of the Director of Campus and Community Engagement when the election cycle has already occurred.

Section 2

Any elected or appointed official may be removed for failure to uphold the SGA Constitution. Any elected or appointed official of the student body may be removed from office for failure to attend meetings or SGA scheduled activities. Any disciplinary action taken against a SGA member shall be deemed just reason for removal.

Section 3

The Director of Campus and Community Engagement can remove any member of the executive board for not fulfilling the requirements of their position or if an executive board member violates the student code of conduct.

ARTICLE XI. Chartering Clubs and Organizations

Section 1

Any university group desiring to organize a group or club shall apply to the officers of the SGA or to the Director of Campus and Community Engagement for a charter.

Section 2

At the time of application, each group shall complete the Student Organization Handbook. Application and reapplication must be completed and submitted to the SGA Council or the Director of Campus and Community Engagement by the beginning of the fall semester.

Section 3

The officers of the SGA must act on each application and submit the information and their recommendation to the Director of Campus and Community Engagement who signs the application and passes it to the Vice President of Student Affairs for his/her signature. After this review by the SGA and the administration, a copy of the application is returned to the organization as a formal notification of recognition.

All student organizations shall be under the supervision of the Director of Campus and Community Engagement and the Vice President for Enrollment and Student Support Services.

ARTICLE XII. Committees

Section 1

The Student Government Association can create additional committees.

Section 2

The committee chairs shall be appointed by the executive board and approved by the Director of Student Activities. Members of the committees may include student volunteers and one faculty/staff member.

Concluding Remarks:

The majority of our students are commuters, many of whom hold full-time or part-time jobs. The average age of our students is 30 and many are married with families. Therefore, our committees must be structured in a way to allow for a maximum of student input and involvement with the limited amount of time available to these students.

ARTICLE XV. Ratification of this Constitution

This Constitution shall become effective when it is approved by a 2/3 vote (a quorum) of the Student Government Association voting body.
